CLERKS AS HOSTS.
 Entertain at Supper and Smoker on Thursday Evening.

Some seventy-five or more members and guests of the Willimantic Clerks' Protective association met in Knights of Pythias hall Thursday evening and passed the evening pleasantly. Whist was played and there was an informal programme of instrumental and vocal music. An appetizing oyster supper was served. Afterwards the guests congregated in the large room and listened to many humorous and interesting speeches and short talks. President L. L. Thompson delivered a few welcoming remarks and introduced the various speakers of the evening, among whom were Mayor D. P. Dunn, C. A. Gates, City Clerk A. C. Scripture, ex-Alderman James Hager, Town Clerk and Treasurer Frank P. Fenton and others.

The remainder of the evening was passed in the enjoyment of a smoker and a general social time.

Lively Interest in Game with West Hartford High.
 This evening at the armory the basketball teams representing the West Hartford high school and the Windham high school met. During the past few seasons West Hartford high has put out some speedy fives and has always made the local boys step their prettiest. If reports are true the first that represents the school from the central portion of the state this year is a sure hummer.

Windham's team was never better, and her players are displaying better form with each succeeding game, and as she has not as yet been beaten this year on her own floor, she will do

This will make upper Main street a busy place again.

Baltic Five Coming.
 A good game of basketball is scheduled for Saturday evening between the Imperials of Baltic and the Explorers of the Willimantic Y. M. C. A. The local team is a good, sturdy bunch and is expected to give a good account of themselves.

Glex Club Minstrels a Hit.
 The Glex club minstrels made such a hit in this city Tuesday and Wednesday evenings that the management is contemplating playing at one or more engagements in nearby cities or large towns. An offer to take the troupe to the Rose of New England has been made, it is understood. South County is also anxious to see the performance.

AUSTIN D. BOSS
 Appointed Assistant Agent and General Manager of Thread Company's Plant.

Gen. E. S. Boss, agent of the American Thread company's plant in this city, received the announcement on Thursday morning that Austin D. Boss, son of General Boss, has been appointed assistant agent and general manager of the American Thread company under the agent and during his absence will be in full charge. General Boss will thus be relieved of much of the work of looking after the details of the big concern.

Austin D. Boss is 42 years old and a native of Willimantic, and is considered one of its most capable young men. He is a graduate of Natchaug high school with the class of 1885 and of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology with the class of 1890. He was first employed in the thread business about fifteen years ago in Hartford, the Willimantic linen company having a small branch there when Morgan was closed after the American Thread company acquired control, he was transferred to Willimantic and became superintendent of the finishing department. For the past two or three years his work has been largely in connection with the statistical department, and he has been compelled to spend much time at the mills of the company in other places. His new office will require a room at the addition Kingsbury when two good men of important committees of the American Thread company will continue.

Officers of South Coventry Library Association.
 The South Coventry Library association at its annual meeting elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, Dr. W. L. Higgins; vice president, Attorney Curtis Dean; treasurer, J. E. Stanley; secretary, De Witt Kingsbury. J. E. Stanley was re-elected a member of the board of trustees for the period of three years. Addison Kingsbury and Curtis Dean are the other trustees. The library is in an excellent condition financially, there being $2,500 in the treasury. About 3,500 volumes comprise the library. It was voted that the trustees contract for wiring the building for the installation of electric lights.

 Work in the P. M. and M. E. M. degrees was exemplified at a stated convocation of Trinity chapter, No. 1, A. M., in Masonic hall, Thursday evening. A pleasant time was passed by those present.

BILL COLLINS DEFEATED.
 Gets First Fall, but Tail Feather Wore Him Down at Windham Athletic Club.

One of the best cards in the history of the Windham Athletic club was presented in the club's rooms on Thursday evening, when two good wrestling matches were witnessed by 200 members and friends. The preliminary was between Peter Lewis and William Barber of this city, to be the best two out of three in 20 minutes. Bill Collins of Central Village was referee and L. M. Dondero of New London timer. Lewis obtained the easy fall in 15 minutes on a farther arm and neck lock. For the remaining time neither obtained any decided advantage.

Main Match Was a Thriller.
 The main match was between Tall Feather of Manitowish, Canada, 170 pounds, and Bill Collins. It was a clean exhibition, full of action. Collins took the first fall on a farther arm and neck lock in 10 1-2 minutes. Collins never before was seen in this city in a match where he was obliged to crawl out of so many tight pinches. The second fall went to Tall Feather on a half-nelson and kink in 1-2 minutes. In the last 30 Collins was game to the core, but because of lack of condition, due to his hard match with Rogers at Westerly Wednesday evening, the Indian finally wore him down and pinned him to the mat in 17 minutes on a half-nelson and hammerlock.

Indian Showed Up Well.
 It is considered that the Indian is one of the best that have appeared in this city at the wrestling game, and people are inclined to think that Jack McGrath, the Irish Giant, of Norwich might possibly be able to make a creditable showing against him in a fish match. It was announced that Young Allen of Norwich and Frank McLean of Windham Athletic club could not be patched for a mitt contest and a challenge was issued that McLean would meet Allen at any place at any time, for any amount. It was also announced that the Dan Murphy-Bill Collins match for $100 a side bet, was an event to be carded soon; possibly under the local club.

YALE DRAMATIC CLUB
 Had Experiences Amusing and Otherwise on Recent Tour.

Slowly and on the part of many with the full knowledge that they should have returned to New Haven with the management rather than stay in New York for a celebration of their successful trip, the members of the Yale dramatic association, who started the country with their presentation of "London Assurance," drifted into town Tuesday on the New Haven Register.

The tour started Dec. 23 in Meriden, where the play was presented to a crowded house. After that there were two days off for Christmas and at midnight the 25th the company met and started for Washington, wrapped up in their sleep. About time for the arrival into Washington the carefully set alarm clocks went off and lo and behold the train was in a drift a short way from Washington. Such a joke! Members of the company who had properly celebrated Christmas thought they would not have to get up. They satisfied everyone for a while, but then the husky students commenced to get hungry. Still the train remained in the drift. A foraging party led by Billy Manice and Harvey Warren started out. The countryside struggled through drifts and finally arrived at a hospitable farmhouse. An attempt was made to purchase the entire winter provisions, but it proved fruitless. The farmer's wife, however, when she heard of the plight of the collegians, hastened to the rescue, and gave the relief party other provisions to take to the train. Then the relief party shoveled out of the snow a small country store whose former location the farmer's wife had described to them and took all they could carry to the car.

Meanwhile the other passengers had become fretful and the members of the company decided to give an entertainment. L. Lawrence Riggs, true to his society proclivities, entertained as Ethel Barrymore in her society plays. After his return from the relief expedition Harvey Warren presented various phases of President Hadley. Finally the train crew despaired of continuing on to Washington and pushed back to Wilmington, where everyone was soon asleep again. At 3 a. m. the students were roused out of their comfortable hotel and were off to Washington.

Far too many to even mention are the adventures which followed the expedition. Washington and Baltimore passed with large and enthusiastic crowds following by Orange, where "standing room only" sign was put out. Then came Bridgeport, Waterbury and Hartford, with appreciative crowds, ending with a blaze of glory at the Waldorf Monday night.

Truth About General Casement.
 Casement was an empire builder of a very essential sort. There was no bravado about him; simply irresistible energy of a kind which produced results. There are veterans of the civil war and of the railroad era of the 60s who will remember with affection and respect a fearless man who did things.

A Mutual Forgetfulness.
